

NCBI LEADERSHIP FOR DIVERSITY INSTITUTES 2017

"NCBI CREATES COMMUNITIES IN WHICH EVERYONE WANTS TO BELONG"

April 26-29, 2017

August 2-5, 2017

Led by Cherie Brown and Joyce Shabazz

November 8-11, 2017

Led by Cherie brown and Larry Bell

DC METRO AREA

The Leadership for Diversity Institute teaches participants hands-on, practical skills for building cultural competency, welcoming diversity, and increasing unity and inclusion.

Whether you are a college administrator or faculty; a schoolteacher or parent; a manager who is responsible for supervising diverse employees in government or in the corporate world; a police officer or community activist – this Institute will give you the hands-on skills needed to be an innovative leader.

In large group classes, participants learn a replicable set of practical skills; then in small group settings, there is an opportunity to practice the skills with support and encouragement from others.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

A: How to Integrate a Powerful Set of Diversity Skills into your Leadership

- Valuing and welcoming similarities and differences among group members and staff;
- Examining the misinformation and unconscious bias that impacts our behavior toward others;
- Understanding the role identity plays in leadership;
- Identifying the harmful effects of oppression on one's own group;
- Preventing and interrupting bigoted remarks and behaviors;
- Learning how to be an ally to all groups.

B: How to Gain Greater Support for your Leadership on Diversity Issues: Participants practice how to implement NCBI skills and practices in their own workplace and community settings. Individual coaching is provided in these skills:

- Leading effective meetings that include everyone's voice;
- Building a team of support for one's own leadership;
- Structuring effective, respectful conversations about difference and
- Increasing cultural competency.

C: How to Listen to Concerns Underneath Controversial Issues - Participants will learn skills to move hotly contested issues forward and reframe the conversation in a way that builds bridges.

D: How to Partner with NCBI to Build a Local Community, Campus or Organizational affiliate to Institutionalize the Skills.
